If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

All makes Sewing Machines at Gerbrich's.

John Hoffman's Sons of Cincinnati, whose superior meats are handled in this city by M. C. Russell Co., have ordered a fine electric light sign for the Messrs. Russell to be placed on their big building here. It will be a dandy.

Mr. Conrad Rasp had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday afternoon. He was engaged in repairing a roof in the East End and in descending from the main roof to an adjoining one his feet slipped and he slid off, falling a distance of some 14 feet. Fortunately he was not hurt but got a good jolt.

The Union Services on Sunday evening will be continued two more weeks. Next Sunday evening the services will be held at the Central Presbyterian Church, Rev. R. E. Moss preaching, and the Sunday following the services will be held at the Christian Church, the Rev. J. C. Molloy delivering the sermon.

There is as much necessity of a Doctor fitting your shoes or hat as there is in having him fit your Glasses. When in need of Glasses come to us; we will give you an accurate fit without exorbitant charges for your Glasses. A perfect fit guaranteed.

MURPHY, the Jeweler and Optician.

One of the most impressive funerals ever held in St. Patrick's Church was that of Miss Nora Breslin this morning. It was under the auspices of the Sodality, of which she was a beloved and honored member. The Church was draped in mourning, the lady pallbearers dressed in white, and the members of the Sodality were in uniform. The services throughout were very impressive.

TO BE QUIETLY WEDDED

Miss Nettie Roe To Become Bride of Mr. Yellman Hicks

At the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Roe, in Limestone street at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Miss Nettie Baker Roe, the youngest daughter, will become the wife of Mr. J. G. Yellman Hicks, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Dr. Charles F. Evans of the First M. E. Church, South.

Miss Roe is one of Maysville's loveliest young ladies. For the past few years she has held the position of Second Assistant in City School District No. 2, and no teacher was held in higher regard than she. Capable and painstaking, her retirement from the faculty will be deeply regretted.

Mr. Hicks is an Express Messenger on the C. and O. Railway, and was a former resident of Lexington. He is a most exemplary young man, and worthy of the charming lady he has won for his bride.

The happy couple will leave at 4:30 over the C. and O., and after a short bridal trip will take up their residence in Newport.

TERRIFIC STORM

Rectorville Neighborhood Suffers Great Loss Yesterday

Although the sky had a most threatening aspect yesterday afternoon, the rainfall, with accompanying thunder and lightning, was not unusually severe in the midst of the city.

Other portions of the county, however, were not so fortunate, and in the Rectorville neighborhood, where the storm broke in all its fury, the damage by the wind, rain and hail is estimated at about $25,000.

The crops were ruined, the loss on tobacco being especially heavy.

Mr. T. F. Goodwin, one of the most prominent farmers in that section, says the loss on his crop will reach fully $1,500.

The leaves were literally stripped from the stalks by the large hailstones, and on this product alone the damage will foot up considerably.

A fine field of tobacco belonging to Bud Sweet, South of the County Infirmary, was almost ruined, while a portion of the corn on the Fairgrounds looked like the city roller had gotten scared and run off in the field.

A patch of nice tobacco at the same place has the appearance of having been in front of a Japanese Division firing "buck and ball."

The storm was one of the very worst that has visited some parts of Mason county in years.

CONDITION CRITICAL

Major Matthew Markland, U. S. A., Retired, Dangerously Ill

Major Matthew Markland was taken suddenly ill at his home at the St. Charles Hotel last night, and as THE LEDGER goes to press his condition is extremely critical.

Major Markland served with distinction as a Private in Company F, Twenty-second Kentucky, during the Civil War, being appointed Second Lieutenant First Infantry, U. S. A., October 24th, 1867; promoted to First Lieutenant June 28th, 1878; to Captain September 23d, 1885, and placed on the retired list February 25th, 1891.

His retirement was based on disabilities occurring in line of duty.

Captain Markland recently received an additional promotion, that to the rank of Major.

For some time he has made his home in this city, where he was born, and where he and his good wife, the latter a sister-in-law of the distinguished General George A. Crook, have a large circle of devoted friends.

It can be done. Will you help to make it so?

The Advance Club entertained with a dance last evening at Washington Hall.

Miss Annie Frost of Falmouth, who is visiting relatives here, will return to Cincinnati Monday where she will resume her duties as stenographer with Langdon's Bakery Company.

"DOING SPLENDIDLY!"

Owing to the deep solicitude manifested in this city as to the condition of Rev. Father Ennis, the former beloved Pastor of St. Patrick's Church, the following telegram received here yesterday will be read with great satisfaction:

OSCAR F. WILSON.

Mr. Oscar F. Wilson died of appendicitis Monday at 9 a. m. at his home, 4346 Innes avenue, Northside, Cincinnati.

Mr. Wilson was the oldest son of Mrs. B. R. Wilson of Aberdeen, and was one of the brightest young men that ever left that neighborhood.

He was a fine conversationalist, a man of scholarly attainments, and withal singularly gifted.

Since his residence in the Queen City he had held many responsible positions, for some time being Boiler Inspector there.

He is survived by his wife and three children. The funeral occurs in Cincinnati at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Rev. George H. Harris of St. Clair, Mich., has accepted the call from the Church of the Nativity, and will enter upon his work here in September.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION NINTH DISTRICT.

The Republicans of the Ninth Congressional District are hereby respectfully called to meet in delegated Convention in the city of Cynthiana, Ky., on Thursday, September 15th, 1904, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a Republican candidate for Congress for said District.

The Chairmen of the respective counties shall cause the Republicans of their counties to meet in Mass Conventions on Saturday, September 10th, 1904, at such times and places to be designated by said Chairmen, for the purpose of selecting Delegates to said Convention at Cynthiana.

The basis of representation shall be one Delegate for each 100 votes, or majority fractional part thereof, cast for William McKinley in 1900, and the counties are entitled to the following Delegates, viz:

Bath	17	Lewis	23
Boyd	25	Nelson	25
Bracken	13	Nicholas	13
Carter	25	Robertson	5
Fleming	21	Rowan	9
Greenup	30
Harrison	18	Total	233
Lawrence	21

By order of the Committee, J. B. BENNETT, Chairman Ninth District.
John D. Littlejohn, District Secretary.

For the present, the Czar has postponed negotiating a treaty of peace from Tokio.

WHAT a pity that the Honorable GEORGE FRANKLIN WEAVER can't be found! The Gobelites might nominate him for an Appellate Judgeship.

If the methods that secured CANTRILL's so-called nomination were disgraceful and dishonest a week ago, they are disgraceful and dishonest today.

If the little Japs get a few more whacks at the Russian Navy, all the remaining warships of the Czar can be quartered in the mouth of Limestone creek.

For some weeks Church people and Church papers have been so busy abusing Bishop PORTER and the Subway Tavern in New York that it has been necessary to employ several additional barkeepers. It pays to advertise.

HON. CHAMP CLARK of Missouri says he detests murder; and yet in a public speech in Indiana he threatened to cut the throat "from ear to ear" of a gentleman who disagreed with one of his statements. That one threat of bully CLARK ought to make 10,000 votes in Indiana alone for ROOSEVELT and FAIRBANKS.

We may now look for The Bulletin, The Courier-Journal and The Flemingsburg Times-Democrat to eat crow some more; or will they have the manhood and independence to stick up to what they said about the disgraceful and dishonest methods that secured CANTRILL's so-called nomination for Appellate Judge by the minority Convention at Lexington?

JUDGE CANTRILL says the friends of CARROLL opened bags and bags of money at the Owen County Appellate Judge Convention and invited all to walk up, help themselves and vote for CARROLL. Commonwealth's Attorney GREENE of the Owen District says that the cry of fraud on the part of the Cantrill forces "is a subterfuge to bolster up the high-handed and premeditated deal W. A. LEE had up his sleeve, and which he attempted to carry out at Lexington."

Each faction of Democrats having shown the other to be unworthy of confidence, nothing remains but to re-elect Judge BURNAM, an excellent lawyer and upright Judge, to the Court of Appeals, which he is now honoring as its Chief Justice.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

To re-elect Judge BURNAM may be easy enough; but in view of past events, it might not be so easy to place him on the Bench. The Frankfort Machine stands between the will of the people and the office.

Political Pickings

HARGIS GIVES US A JUDGE.

Louisville Herald.

Judge Cantrill's title to the nomination for Appellate Judge from the aristocratic Bluegrass District was cinched by the vote of the Hon. James F. Hargis of Breathitt county. Without his vote the Democratic Committee was a tie. His vote gave the nomination to Judge Cantrill, who went into the Convention with a minority delegation and came out with all the goods. Not only has Hargis dictated the Appellate nomination, but he has made men like M. H. Saufley and John D. Carroll bend to fate and submit to robbery, violence and fraud.

Harry Taylor will this week move his News Depot into the January Block.

"IF YOU SEE IT IN THE SUN IT'S SO!"

Full Text of New York Sun's Editorial Denouncing Judge Parker's Speech of Acceptance and the St. Louis Platform

The New York Sun, one of the most forceful independent Democratic newspapers in America, which supported McKinley in 1896 and 1900, vigorously criticized Roosevelt for the last two years and hoped to the last that it might be able to support the nominee and platform of the St. Louis Convention, created a sensation in journalistic and political circles in the East by its instant repudiation of Judge Parker after listening to his speech of acceptance, and its unequivocal declaration in favor of Roosevelt and Fairbanks. The Sun's stand is said to have made a distinct impression upon the Sound Money Democrats who had been inclined to return to the Democratic fold in the expectation that Judge Parker would rise superior to his party and platform. The Sun's famous editorial is reprinted in full below, from its issue of Thursday, August 11th, the day following the notification ceremonies at Esopus.

ROOSEVELT AND FAIRBANKS.

"The campaign is now on. Both parties and both candidates have spoken.

"On the one side a conservative party with a radically inclined and erstwhile too strenuous candidate for President; and behind him for the Vice-Presidency, a man of undoubted capacity, sound opinions and mental and physical promise of endurance.

"On the other side a radical party, with an infinite capacity for mischief and a stupendous record of mischief actually accomplished, presenting for President a conservatively inclined candidate of irreproachable character and attractive personal accomplishments; and for Vice-President one whose extreme age is the sole but sufficient reason for apprehension in case of his succession to the Presidency.

"Such is the chance before the independent voter, and it is the independent voter who will decide this election.

"He cannot take Judge Parker on the Republican platform and record. He cannot reject Mr. Roosevelt without beckoning to the distant Huns; without helping to open the gates of power to political forces of unmeasured destructive potentiality. It seems better to maintain unbroken the wall of defense which the first election of McKinley established.

"Two things might have happened to make the choice of 1904 a choice between individuals rather than between parties standing on their respective records. Neither of the two things has happened. The first opportunity was deliberately avoided by the compromising tricksters at St. Louis. The second was deliberately thrown away at Rosemount yesterday. Barring Judge Parker's gold telegram of 1904, offsetting in some degree his two free silver votes for Bryan in 1896 and 1900, and barring a public anti-second term pledge which might have been made, perhaps, more gracefully in an inaugural address after election, nothing has come from Judge Parker's lips or pen to indicate that he possesses a single political idea marking him as a statesman of independent initiative, of courage superior to the St. Louis brand, of stature to command and lead. With the two exceptions noted, he is an echo of the Convention, and naught beside. He is yet the unknown quantity that he was throughout the preliminary period of silence prescribed by judicial dignity. Instead of rising above the platform, Judge Parker has crawled pretty ignominiously beneath it, in our reluctantly expressed opinion. He himself has decreed that the choice of the independents shall be one of parties and records and principles, rather than of men.

"To state The Sun's position and its reasons therefor requires no metaphysical subtlety of explanation. The main consideration is as broad as the Nation's interests.

"As the case is now made up, we prefer the impulsive candidate of the party of conservatism to the mildly conservative, temporizing, opportunist representative of the Hun vote in the background. We have more faith in the distinct promises of the Chicago platform, not ignoring the many serious defects of that document, than we have in the miserable bell-broth of dishwater and dynamite concocted at St. Louis a month ago by a party afraid to renounce its criminal follies, and tasted today at Esopus by a respectable candidate who declares with gusto that its flavor is admirable.

"We shall, therefore, advocate the election of Roosevelt and Fairbanks and advise the defeat of Parker and Davis, preserving our own absolute independence of organic control and our freedom of judgment as to every specific question occurring. And may Hon. Theodore Roosevelt's present mood continue, and if he is elected may the Discourager of Precipitancy stand always at his elbow!

"In the politics of the Empire State, so far as they concern state matters, we shall support the candidate, whatever may be the partisan designation of his ticket, who seems to us the more likely to give the people of New York the honest and competent administration their public affairs so grievously need, and to wipe out the shame and evil of existing grocery conditions at Albany."

The Handsomest Calendars Ever Shown in This City

The business man who spends his money in Maysville, simply puts that money into the hands of people who will in turn spend it with him again.

Did you ever think of that?

The business man who spends his money for printing in Louisville, or Cincinnati, or Chicago, or New York, puts that money into the hands of people who never did, nor ever will, spend a dollar in his store.

Did you ever think of that?

Now, in order that a good deal of this money may be kept at home, and spent by home workmen and home employers with home merchants, The Ledger Printery has secured the handsomest line of Calendars ever seen in this city, with a price limit to suit every need.

Mr. Richard L. Miles, The Ledger Printery's expert Printer, will call on you in a few days, dazzle your eyes with the beauties and tickle your bank account with the prices.

Attorney W. H. Wadsworth, representing the C. and O. Railway Company, while at Paintsville a few days ago, had a $5,000,000 mortgage recorded in the County Clerk's office. The mortgage was executed by the C. and O. on its property to secure a loan of that amount recently obtained from the great banking house of Pierpont Morgan & Co. The mortgage is executed on the entire property holdings of the road and was recorded in the Clerk's Office in Boyd, Lawrence, Johnson, Floyd and Pike counties.

The Stanley will be down today from Pomroy.

The Tacoma passed up last night for upper points.

Captain Oscar Barrett has just purchased the towboat Gondola.

The towboat Lucy Marmet was formerly known as the Mt. Clare.

The Catherine Davis passed up with eleven barges for the Kanawha.

The Wash Honsell and tow got over the bar at the Sisters and went on to Cairo.

The Bonanza will take the place of the City of Cincinnati in the Louisville trade as soon as her new wheels are put in.

The pleasure boat Annie Russell, from St. Louis, which started to Pittsburgh, turned back at Cincinnati on account of the low water.

Over 5,000,000 bushels of coal is now standing in the Pittsburgh harbor waiting for water to float it down the Ohio river. Most of the floats are tied up along the lower river near Cincinnati and Louisville. Few of the river mines are being operated, although a good quantity of coal is coming from the rail mines to Pittsburgh. A rise in the rivers is all that will help the situation, and that, in the opinion of experienced coal men, will not stimulate mining to any great extent for several weeks.

Quite a number left this morning on the L. and N. to take part in the Confederate Reunion today at Parks Hill. Among the number were Major Thomas J. Chenoweth, Judge G. S. Wall, John W. Boulden and Dan Ferrine.

THE SIGN OF THE CROSS SOON TO BE SEEN HERE

Contracts were signed yesterday for the appearance here of an attraction which Booking Manager Hamilton has been trying to secure for the past two years—"The Sign of the Cross." This should certainly be the dramatic event of the present season and a great audience will no doubt be on hand to give this attraction such a welcome that it will bring them back to our city each succeeding year. This play and company has only been seen in the larger cities and has been filling the theaters as no other attraction has ever filled them, for the past six or seven years. All the beautiful scenery and costumes will be seen here and a great performance may be expected.

READ ALL THIS.

You Never Know the Moment When This Information May Prove of Infinite Value.

It is worth considerable to any citizen of Maysville to know how to be cured of painful, annoying and itching piles. Know then that Doan's Ointment is a positive remedy for all itches of the skin, for piles, eczema, etc. One application relieves and soothes. Read this testimony of its merit:

Mr. J. C. Gabby of 925 East Second street says:

For many years I suffered severely from itching hemorrhoids. I bought every remedy I heard of, but do what I might the trouble grew worse instead of better. It was particularly aggravating after I retired and I lost much sleep because of the intense itching. I had the good fortune to learn of Doan's Ointment, and I bought a box at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. The wonderful relief I obtained from its use was almost beyond belief. I soon felt that I was cured. I continued the treatment for a time, however, to make assurance doubly sure.
